

Bouillabaisse

Origin: France | Difficulty: Hard | Prep Time: 120 mins | Servings: 6

Description: A traditional Provençal fish stew from Marseille, flavored with saffron, fennel, and orange zest.

Ingredients

- 500 grams Monkfish
- 500 grams Red Mullet
- 1 pinch Saffron Threads
- 1 whole Fennel Bulb
- 5 grams Orange Zest

Instructions

Step 1: Prepare a rich broth using fish bones, leeks, onions, tomatoes, fennel, and saffron.

Step 2: Simmer the broth for 40 minutes, then strain through a fine-mesh sieve.

Step 3: Add firm-fleshed fish first, then more delicate seafood, simmering until just cooked.

Step 4: Prepare a rouille by emulsifying garlic, saffron, chili, and olive oil with breadcrumbs.

Step 5: Serve the broth and fish in large bowls with toasted baguette slices smeared with rouille.

Step 6: Ensure the broth is served piping hot.

Equipment & Techniques

Equipment: Large Stock Pot, Chinois

Techniques: Simmering, Emulsifying

Allergen Information

- Fish (Severity: High)
- Shellfish (Severity: High)
- Gluten (Severity: Medium)

Suggested Pairings

- Bandol Rosé (Rosé Wine): Structured and herbal, it matches the saffron and fennel perfectly.