

Bourbon-Glazed Pork Belly Burnt Ends

Origin: USA | Difficulty: Medium | Prep Time: 30 mins | Servings: 8

Description: Slow-smoked cubes of pork belly tossed in a sticky, sweet bourbon glaze until they become meat candy.

Ingredients

- 2000 grams Pork Belly
- 120 ml Kentucky Bourbon
- 100 grams Brown Sugar

Instructions

Step 1: Cut pork belly into 1-inch cubes and season with your favorite BBQ rub.

Step 2: Smoke at 250 degrees Fahrenheit for 3 hours until a dark bark forms.

Step 3: Place cubes in a foil pan, add bourbon, brown sugar, and butter, then cover with foil.

Step 4: Braze for another 90 minutes until tender.

Step 5: Uncover and cook for 15 minutes to thicken the glaze.

Equipment & Techniques

Equipment: Smoker, Foil Pan, Aluminum Foil

Techniques: Smoking, Glazing, Braising

Allergen Information

- Dairy (Severity: Low)

Suggested Pairings

- Old Fashioned (Cocktail): The orange zest and bitters complement the rich pork fat.