

Chiles en Nogada

Origin: Mexico | Difficulty: Hard | Prep Time: 120 mins | Servings: 4

Description: A patriotic Mexican dish featuring poblano chiles stuffed with a flavorful picadillo, topped with a walnut-based cream sauce and pomegranate seeds.

Ingredients

- 4 whole Poblano Pepper
- 250 grams Ground Pork
- 100 grams Walnut
- 0.5 cups Pomegranate Seeds
- 200 ml Crema Mexicana

Instructions

Step 1: Roast and peel the poblano peppers.

Step 2: Sauté ground pork with diced fruits and spices to create the picadillo filling.

Step 3: Blend walnuts, cream, and goat cheese to make the nogada sauce.

Step 4: Stuff the peppers with the meat mixture.

Step 5: Cover with sauce and garnish with pomegranate seeds and parsley.

Equipment & Techniques

Equipment: Blender, Skillet, Baking Sheet

Techniques: Roasting, Stuffing, Emulsifying

Allergen Information

- Walnuts (Severity: High)
- Milk (Severity: Medium)

Suggested Pairings

- Mexican Sparkling Wine (White Wine): Crisp acidity to cut through the rich cream sauce.