

Coq au Vin

Origin: France | Difficulty: Medium | Prep Time: 180 mins | Servings: 4

Description: Chicken braised in red Burgundy wine with lardons, mushrooms, and pearl onions for a deep, complex flavor.

Ingredients

- 1.5 kg Whole Chicken
- 750 ml Red Burgundy Wine
- 150 grams Bacon Lardons
- 20 whole Pearl Onions
- 250 grams Button Mushrooms

Instructions

Step 1: Marinate chicken pieces in red wine with aromatics overnight.

Step 2: Brown the lardons in a Dutch oven, then remove and brown the chicken in the rendered fat.

Step 3: Add flour to the pot to create a roux, then slowly stir in the marinade and chicken stock.

Step 4: Return chicken to the pot and braise in a 150°C oven for 90 minutes.

Step 5: Sauté mushrooms and pearl onions separately and add them to the pot in the last 15 minutes.

Step 6: Finish the sauce by reducing it until it coats the back of a spoon.

Equipment & Techniques

Equipment: Dutch Oven

Techniques: Braising, Flambé

Allergen Information

- Gluten (Severity: Medium)
- None (Severity: Low)

Suggested Pairings

- Gevrey-Chambertin (Red Wine): The same wine used in the dish provides a perfect structural match.