

Creamy Red Lentil Dal

Origin: India | Difficulty: Easy | Prep Time: 10 mins | Servings: 4

Description: A comforting Indian staple made with split red lentils, coconut milk, and a fragrant 'tadka' of tempered spices.

Ingredients

- 200 grams Red Lentils
- 400 ml Coconut Milk
- 1 tsp Turmeric
- 1 tsp Cumin Seeds
- 15 grams Fresh Ginger

Instructions

Step 1: Rinse lentils and boil in water with turmeric and ginger until soft.

Step 2: Stir in coconut milk and simmer on low heat to achieve a creamy consistency.

Step 3: In a separate small pan, heat oil and add cumin seeds and mustard seeds until they pop (the tadka).

Step 4: Pour the hot oil and spice mixture over the cooked lentils.

Step 5: Garnish with fresh cilantro and serve with basmati rice.

Equipment & Techniques

Equipment: Pot, Small Frying Pan, Whisk

Techniques: Boiling, Tempering, Simmering

Suggested Pairings

- Mango Lassi with Coconut Yogurt (Tea): Sweet and cooling to balance the warm spices of the dal.