

Gajar Ka Halwa

Origin: India | Difficulty: Medium | Prep Time: 60 mins | Servings: 5

Description: A traditional Punjabi dessert made by slow-cooking grated carrots with milk, sugar, and cardamom.

Ingredients

- 1.0 kg Carrots
- 1.0 liter Whole Milk
- 150.0 grams Sugar

Instructions

Step 1: Grate carrots finely and cook in milk in a heavy-based pan.

Step 2: Simmer on low heat, stirring occasionally, until the milk has evaporated completely.

Step 3: Add ghee and sugar, then sauté until the halwa turns deep orange and starts to glisten.

Step 4: Stir in cardamom powder and chopped nuts (almonds and pistachios).

Step 5: Serve warm or at room temperature.

Equipment & Techniques

Equipment: Heavy Bottomed Pan, Box Grater

Techniques: Reduction, Sauteing

Allergen Information

- Milk (Severity: High)
- Tree Nuts (Severity: Medium)

Suggested Pairings

- Masala Chai (Tea): Spiced tea cuts through the density of the sweet halwa.