

Lobster Thermidor

Origin: France | Difficulty: Hard | Prep Time: 60 mins | Servings: 2

Description: A decadent dish of lobster meat cooked in a rich brandy-cream sauce, returned to the shell and browned.

Ingredients

- 2 whole Lobster
- 50 ml Cognac
- 200 ml Heavy Cream
- 10 grams Dijon Mustard
- 50 grams Parmesan Cheese

Instructions

Step 1: Boil the lobsters for 8 minutes, then shock in ice water.

Step 2: Split the lobsters lengthwise and remove the meat, cutting it into bite-sized chunks.

Step 3: Sauté shallots, add Cognac and flambé, then add cream and mustard, reducing by half.

Step 4: Fold the lobster meat into the sauce and season with tarragon.

Step 5: Stuff the mixture back into the lobster shells and sprinkle with Parmesan.

Step 6: Broil for 3-5 minutes until the top is golden and bubbling.

Equipment & Techniques

Equipment: Kitchen Shears, Sauté Pan

Techniques: Poaching, Flambé, Broiling

Allergen Information

- Shellfish (Severity: High)
- Dairy (Severity: High)
- Mustard (Severity: Low)

Suggested Pairings

- Meursault Burgundy (White Wine): Buttery and hazelnut notes match the intensity of the Thermidor sauce.