

Moroccan Lamb Tagine

Origin: Morocco | Difficulty: Medium | Prep Time: 180 mins | Servings: 4

Description: A slow-cooked North African stew balancing tender lamb with the sweetness of dried prunes and toasted almonds.

Ingredients

- 800 grams Lamb Shoulder
- 150 grams Dried Prunes
- 2 tbsp Ras el Hanout
- 2 tbsp Honey
- 50 grams Blanched Almonds

Instructions

Step 1: Brown lamb chunks in olive oil with onions.

Step 2: Add Ras el Hanout, ginger, and cinnamon.

Step 3: Cover with water and simmer low for 2 hours.

Step 4: Add prunes and honey, simmer for another 30 minutes until sauce thickens.

Step 5: Garnish with toasted almonds and sesame seeds.

Equipment & Techniques

Equipment: Tagine or Dutch Oven

Techniques: Slow-cooking, Braising

Allergen Information

- Nuts (Severity: High)

Suggested Pairings

- Mint Tea (Tea): Refreshing and cleanses the palate from the rich lamb fats.