

Portuguese Pastéis de Nata

Origin: Portugal | Difficulty: Hard | Prep Time: 60 mins | Servings: 12

Description: A Portuguese egg tart pastry dusted with cinnamon, characterized by a blistered, caramelized custard and a flaky crust.

Ingredients

- 6.0 whole Egg Yolk
- 500.0 ml Milk
- 400.0 grams Puff Pastry
- 1.0 whole Lemon Peel
- 1.0 whole Cinnamon Stick

Instructions

Step 1: Roll puff pastry into a tight log and cut into discs; press into muffin tins.

Step 2: Infuse milk with lemon peel and cinnamon stick, then bring to a boil.

Step 3: Whisk flour and sugar into the milk, then temper in the egg yolks.

Step 4: Strain the custard and fill the pastry shells.

Step 5: Bake at the highest possible oven setting (275C-300C) for 10-12 minutes.

Step 6: The tops should be charred and caramelized.

Step 7: Serve warm with a dusting of powdered sugar and cinnamon.

Equipment & Techniques

Equipment: Muffin tin or tart molds, Saucepan, Fine mesh strainer

Techniques: Lamination, Tempering, High-heat baking

Allergen Information

- Egg (Severity: High)
- Dairy (Severity: High)
- Gluten (Severity: High)

Suggested Pairings

- Port Wine (Red Wine): Sweet fortified wine that matches the richness.
- Galão (Coffee): Portuguese milk coffee.