

Roasted Cauliflower Steaks with Chimichurri

Origin: Argentina | Difficulty: Easy | Prep Time: 15 mins | Servings: 2

Description: Thick-cut cauliflower roasted until caramelized and topped with a zesty, garlic-heavy Argentinian herb sauce.

Ingredients

- 1 whole Cauliflower
- 1 cup Flat Leaf Parsley
- 3 cloves Garlic
- 2 tbsp Red Wine Vinegar
- 4 tbsp Olive Oil

Instructions

Step 1: Cut the cauliflower through the core into 1-inch thick 'steaks'.

Step 2: Season with salt, pepper, and oil; roast at 210C for 25 minutes, flipping halfway.

Step 3: Finely chop parsley, garlic, and chili; mix with vinegar and olive oil to make the chimichurri.

Step 4: Spoon the sauce generously over the hot cauliflower steaks.

Step 5: Serve as a main dish or a hearty side.

Equipment & Techniques

Equipment: Oven, Baking Sheet, Mixing Bowl

Techniques: Roasting, Emulsifying

Suggested Pairings

- Malbec (Red Wine): A classic pairing for chimichurri, offering dark fruit notes to contrast the herbs.