

Sarshe Maach (Bengali Mustard Fish)

Origin: India | Difficulty: Medium | Prep Time: 40 mins | Servings: 2

Description: A pungent and flavorful fish curry from West Bengal, using freshwater fish and a sharp mustard seed paste.

Ingredients

- 400.0 grams Rohu Fish Steak
- 4.0 tbsp Mustard Oil
- 3.0 tbsp Yellow Mustard Seeds

Instructions

Step 1: Rub fish steaks with turmeric and salt, then shallow fry in mustard oil until golden.

Step 2: Grind mustard seeds and green chilies into a fine paste with a little water.

Step 3: Heat remaining mustard oil and add nigella seeds (kalonji).

Step 4: Add the mustard paste and turmeric powder, cooking on low heat to avoid bitterness.

Step 5: Add water to create a gravy, slide in the fried fish, and simmer for 5 minutes.

Equipment & Techniques

Equipment: Grinder, Frying Pan

Techniques: Shallow Frying, Emulsifying

Allergen Information

- Fish (Severity: High)
- Mustard (Severity: High)

Suggested Pairings

- Steamed Jasmine Rice (Rice): Neutral base to allow the mustard intensity to shine.