

Smoked Wagyu Brisket with Espresso Rub

Origin: USA | Difficulty: Hard | Prep Time: 60 mins | Servings: 12

Description: A luxurious take on Texas-style brisket using highly marbled Wagyu beef, seasoned with a dark, earthy espresso-based dry rub for a complex crust.

Ingredients

- 6000 grams Wagyu Brisket
- 50 grams Espresso Powder
- 60 grams Black Pepper
- 60 grams Kosher Salt

Instructions

Step 1: Trim the brisket fat cap to 1/4 inch thickness and remove any hard silver skin.

Step 2: Combine espresso powder, salt, and pepper; apply generously to all sides of the meat.

Step 3: Preheat the smoker to 225 degrees Fahrenheit using oak wood.

Step 4: Smoke the brisket until the internal temperature reaches 165 degrees Fahrenheit.

Step 5: Wrap the brisket in butcher paper and return to the smoker until the internal temperature reaches 203 degrees Fahrenheit.

Step 6: Rest the meat in an insulated cooler for at least 2 hours before slicing against the grain.

Equipment & Techniques

Equipment: Offset Smoker, Butcher Paper, Meat Thermometer, Boning Knife

Techniques: Smoking, The Texas Crutch, Trimming

Suggested Pairings

- Cabernet Sauvignon (Red Wine): Tannins cut through the heavy fat of the Wagyu beef.