

Smoky Jackfruit Carnitas Tacos

Origin: Mexico | Difficulty: Medium | Prep Time: 20 mins | Servings: 3

Description: Shredded young jackfruit slow-cooked in citrus and spices to perfectly mimic the texture of traditional pork carnitas.

Ingredients

- 400 grams Young Green Jackfruit
- 100 ml Orange Juice
- 1 tbsp Smoked Paprika
- 6 whole Corn Tortillas
- 1 whole Avocado

Instructions

Step 1: Drain and rinse the jackfruit, then shred the pieces using two forks.

Step 2: In a skillet, sauté the jackfruit with smoked paprika, cumin, and garlic powder.

Step 3: Pour in orange juice and a splash of soy sauce; simmer until the liquid is absorbed and jackfruit is tender.

Step 4: Spread the jackfruit on a baking sheet and broil for 5 minutes to get crispy edges.

Step 5: Warm the tortillas and fill with jackfruit, sliced avocado, and fresh cilantro.

Step 6: Serve with a squeeze of lime.

Equipment & Techniques

Equipment: Skillet, Baking Sheet, Forks

Techniques: Shredding, Simmering, Broiling

Suggested Pairings

- Michelada with Vegan Worcestershire (Beer): Cold, spicy, and refreshing to cut through the smoky richness.