

Steak Tartare

Origin: France | Difficulty: Medium | Prep Time: 30 mins | Servings: 2

Description: A bold dish of finely hand-chopped raw beef tenderloin seasoned with capers, shallots, and a raw egg yolk.

Ingredients

- 300 grams Beef Fillet
- 2 whole Egg Yolk
- 20 grams Capers
- 15 grams Dijon Mustard
- 30 grams Cornichons

Instructions

Step 1: Hand-chop the beef fillet into very small cubes (do not use a food processor).

Step 2: Finely mince the shallots, capers, cornichons, and parsley.

Step 3: In a bowl, mix the mustard, oil, and seasonings to create a dressing.

Step 4: Gently combine the beef and aromatics with the dressing.

Step 5: Mold the tartare into a circle on a chilled plate and create a small indentation on top.

Step 6: Place a fresh raw egg yolk in the indentation and serve with toasted baguette or frites.

Equipment & Techniques

Equipment: Chef Knife, Mixing Bowl

Techniques: Mincing, Emulsifying

Allergen Information

- Eggs (Severity: High)
- Mustard (Severity: Medium)

Suggested Pairings

- Beaujolais-Villages (Red Wine): Light body and high acidity complement the raw beef without overpowering it.